SEP 08 2009

HSAB Members,

I would like to nominate my long time friend Donna Allen for your humanitarian award. She is an amazing woman of substance with a heart the size of Texas. Self-made from humble beginnings, she makes her way through the world enriching the lives of almost everyone she touches along the way. Donna helped me thru my darkest time and has helped many disadvantaged and underprivileged people along the way. Now she is going through a rough patch herself after joining the ranks of the unemployed in February. This honor would mean the world to her and could not go to a more selfless, unpretentious, well deserving candidate. It would be a testament to the little guy's triumph over tragedy.

Her daily choices are influenced by what is best in the big picture not necessarily for herself personally. I know very few people who think in this way. Come to think of it, I don't know anyone else who lets the betterment of society guide their choices in such a way. Our social circle is always giving her a hard time for being such a tree hugger. She picks up litter at the beach, keeps a watchful eye on the sea turtles, conserves energy, recycles and even traded her beloved gas guzzling pick up for a fuel efficient subcompact.

It's the adult version of making fun of the smart kid in school. Speaking of which, she is that as well. Working to get her degree one class at a time, Donna is a member of Phi Theta Kappa Honor Society and has been recognized by National Deans List on numerous occasions maintains a GPA above 3.6 to this day.

Enough rambling, if I continue you will never get the essay before tonight's deadline.

First, I would like to say that I am a fifty year old native Floridian. I've lived in Dade or Broward County my entire life. I bought my condo in Hallandale about six years ago and try to keep up to date on city happenings; I frequent the libraries, read all the local papers, use public transportation and shop at local retail establishments. I love everything about this city, with the exception of the poorly timed traffic lights on HBB of course. I plan to retire and enjoy my golden years here. On a recent visit to city hall looking for info on the Community Redevelopment Project, I saw a flyer for the MLK Humanitarian Award. Immediately I knew the perfect person, a true humanitarian in every sense of the word. Imagine my surprise when I realized I only had three days to assemble something of such great importance into a concise meaningful narrative. Let's see, where to begin?

I met Donna five or six years ago. I was running with a rough crowd, living and doing everything to excess. She on the other hand was a Certified Personal Training living a life polar opposite to mine, working to help seniors improve their quality of life. She recycles, conserves natural resources, shops the flea market, eats fresh foods, grows organic on her patio and even distributes seedlings to elderly and handicapped neighbors from her condo complex. She says it gives them something to do during the day when they are home alone. They find joy in the plants not to mention the oxygen benefits for the environment (tree hugger). The fact that they end up with free/fresh home grown organic vegetables is just a bonus, like the icing on a cake.

In addition to the people in her three building complex, she befriended a local from the Hemispheres who introduced her to many other seniors at the beach. Donna cares deeply about her family, friends, neighbors and the surrounding community. She has participated in an endless community projects including street sweeps, coastal cleanups, railroad crossing safety, breast cancer walks, recycling, environmental projects and so on. Her charity work and volunteer activities are never ending but they don't speak to the nature of her soul. Her morals and values are 'old school'. She conducts herself in a manor that is often missing from today's society.

Donna has worked as a Literacy Tutor for Broward County, a volunteer at Broward Outreach Center, an Events Coordinator for The Women's Community Fund in Dade County and countless other civic minded projects her friends are involved in. Her work as a tutor brought her in contact with a nineteen year old who graduated from a Broward County High School but could barely read. He now attends Sheridan Tech passing the entrance exams with flying colors.

She has since mentored many local youths of diverse cultural backgrounds and religious affiliations helping one drop out return to school. She graduated from Hallandale Adult Community School has her first semester at BC under her belt. In another instance, Donna also devoted a summer to a 13 year old promoted to high school reading on a 4th grade level. Using skills she learned from Broward County's - Each One Teach One program to reinforce the child's basic reading skills, his reading improved to a level that allowed him to pass his high school classes with some additional remedial reading time from his teachers. Now he is a senior in high school, star of the football team and has already passed all testing required for graduation at the end of the year.

SEP 8 2009

During my life I've made some really bad choices. My goal now is to be as passionate about my new life as I was the old one. I needed help replacing the old destructive thoughts and behaviors with new healthy lifestyle choices like exercise and proper nutrition. Being the most healthy, optimistic person I'd ever had met, I knew Donna would be just the jump start I needed to maintain sobriety. Like a breath of fresh air in total contrast to my toxic past, she came through for me once again. Other than the fact that she is currently unemployed, nothing about her has changed in the six months I've been sailing away from hurricane season. Even without a job she remains joyful, optimistic, happy and healthy; putting everyone's needs ahead of her own Donna gives her all to her life's passions.

Keeping the seniors active and the kids in school only scratch the surface. Currently she is wrapping up a degree at Broward College, keeping an eye on the sea turtle nests and prepping for the upcoming coastal cleanup. She already has a roster of 20+ volunteers with about two weeks left until the event to recruit more and believe me she will! In addition to the health gains I've achieved both physically and mentally, I have a new Ocean Drive social network to add to the Meadowbrook friends I've had for years. The combination of the two helps keep me motivated and disengaged from my destructive past. Our sunrise walks and afternoon water aerobics have provided insight into future, reinforcing the need for smart choices now.

I'm inspired daily by her way of life. Her compassion is gigantic and her carbon footprint microscopic. She is the quintessential mentor always looking toward the future doing her part to make this world a better place one good deed at a time. There are the small things; taking a garbage bag to the beach, picking up other peoples discarded items, helping complete strangers with their groceries. Then there are the big things, like teaching people to read while helping others lower their blood pressure or shopping for a neighbor with dementia. She is one super productive member of our community with a heart of gold and greatly deserves some recognition. I hope you and the members of your committee feel the same.

This school has a home-like environment. I tried other schools in the area before I chose this one. Everything here is very clean and neat. The transition of my child from home to school was so easy because of the teacher's exceptional care for each kid. This school offers summer camp in June-July, which was absolutely great. Kids learn a lot in this fun atmosphere. The food is very good and balanced. They evaluate the progress of a child, and determine whether he/she is ready for new challenges or not. I like the diversity: it's great to learn different languages and culture. (kids speak English, Spanish, Portuguese, Russian and other languages)

This school is the best one in southbound and miami dade area. I have visited many different schools and none of them were a half as good as this one. Unlike the others, all the teachers in this school are caring, loving, nurturing, responsible and excellent instructors. The kids are happy to come to school and happy again when we pick them up. My daughter feels very special at the school from all the love she gets. She just turned 3 years old. She can recognize and read all the alphabet letters and numbers up to 20. She misses school on the weekend regardless of how much fun she has. This school really deserves this award in recognition of the year round hard work and effort that their staff has put.

I am very happy with this schools, my daughter have learned a lot ever since she started, she knows the whole Alphabet, the numbers 1-20, days of the week. I think she has accomplish a lot with the help of her teachers. The summer program was really good too, and my daughter is very happy there which makes me happy, and you could see that they are giving her the attention she needs.

Linda's Kids Garden is a warm and inviting environment. As my son has been attending the school since he was an infant I have never had a worry in the world. When I drop him off he hardly ever cries which is a sign of him being comfortable and at ease. The teachers all greet you openly by name and are always interacting with the kids. There are activities that they put togther for the kids and its wonderful.

We all know how expensive childcare is but when you pay for a service and the experience of both the facility and the care of your child is exceptional you value it ~~and~~ the people that you leave your child with all day.

Linda's Kids Garden is all in all, clean, warm, inviting and most of all reputable and safe.

Linda's Kids Garden has made a difference in their Community by opening doors for every kids, so that they can come together and learn how to love each other, This School teaches every child to respect, Share, Care, Love, honesty and most of all to believe in themselves and love who they are. Linda's Kids is a one in a million pre School My kid attends Linda for years and I can really see where they learn how to count, Spell, do mathematics and even sing. You send your kids to Linda then you will know. They never get sick because there surrounding is clean of Germs and bacteria. I think they deserve to get this award

It took me a while to cope with the fact that i had to put my Kids in daycare, leaving them with a total stranger, but when i visited linda Kids garden i had the assurance that my babies were going to be just fine the staff was unbeleivably nice, the school is reley neat and my babies have learned a lot, my 1yr old Know's parts of his Abc's, he counts, in other words i would recomend the school to anyone who wants their child to be in a safe, clean environment.
