BALLOT QUESTIONS FOR BROWARD COUNTY RESIDENTS CHARTER AMENDMENTS AND REVISIONS

Recommended by the Broward Charter Review Commission for the November 4, 2008 General Election

Among the issues on the November 4, 2008 ballot will be the proposed amendments and revisions to the Charter of Broward County. The Charter brought home rule to Broward County. The Charter provides a blueprint for the operation of a county-wide government and outlines the duties and responsibilities of the various entities that serve all residents of Broward County. The Charter also created a Charter Review Commission (CRC) that is empowered to conduct a comprehensive study of any and/or all phases of County government and to propose changes to the Charter. The CRC is a 19-member commission that meets every six (6) years. Its current term is 2006-2008.

The people of Broward County as well as the County Commission may propose amendments to the Charter through a petition process.

The Charter requires the County Commission to place the proposed amendments and/or revisions with associated ballot language without change on the general election ballot. These proposed amendments and/or revisions are in the form of ballot questions and are set forth below for you to consider and vote on at the November 4, 2008 General Election.
