Arthur J. "Sonny" Rosenberg

Sonny Rosenberg was born in New York where he lived until 1956 when he moved to Tenafly, N.J. with wife Carole and daughters Laura and Linda. He was a very successful businessman and ran a family-owned business, the largest in the world making television graphics. This business was sold to Wometco Enterprises of Miami and Sonny became an Executive Vice President of this firm which was listed on the New York Stock Exchange. The Rosenbergs moved to Hallandale in 1971, where they still reside. He retired at rather an early age and became involved in city politics in 1973. Sonny was first elected to the Hallandale City Commission in 1977 and has served as Mayor three terms, Vice Mayor three terms and Commissioner.

He served as Chairman of the Broward County Water Supply Advisory Board and was a member of that board for 12 years, a former chairman of the Broward County Planning Council for 14 years, a member of the Metropolitan Planning Organization for 15 years and a member of the Board of Directors of the Broward League of Cities for 8 years. He was founder of Hallandale United Citizens and has been President of the Concerned Democrats of Broward County. He was tireless in his service to the City of Hallandale Beach and Broward County.

Mayor Arthur "Sonny" Rosenberg left the city with 24 years of service ending in the March, 2001 election, leaving a proud legacy of fighting to preserve the residential scale of neighborhoods. He was a staunch challenger of developer claims and a fiscal conservative and watchdog.
